WYOMING STATE TREASURER'S OFFICE

Lisa Jerde-Spillman

Lisa Jerde Spillman is General Counsel for the Wyoming State Treasurer's Office. She has been an attorney for 17 years. Lisa clerked for the Honorable United States District Court Judge Manuel L. Real in Los Angeles after graduating magna cum laude from Chapman University School of Law in Orange, California and is currently halfway through her Master's in Finance from Colorado State University, expected in 2022. She was the Attorney General's representative for the Treasurer's Office from 2015 to 2017, House Counsel from 2017-2019 and General Counsel since Treasurer Curt Meier took office in 2019. She handles investment contracts, compliance and other general counsel duties for the Treasurer and the office. When she's not at work, you can probably find her hanging out with her husband and four children, hiking, skiing, or running a half marathon somewhere.

Matt Sackett

Matt Sackett grew up on a ranch in northeastern Wyoming. After high school, he attended the University of Wyoming and graduated with a Bachelor's in Finance with a minor in banking and financial institutions. After graduation he began working in Denver as a financial advisor. Matt soon realized school was more fun and attended graduate school at the University of Wyoming. While there he received a Master's in Finance, as well as a Master's in Economics. Matt then moved to Cheyenne and started working for the Legislative Service Office. After working for the Wyoming Legislature for 15 years in a number of roles he moved to his current position as the Senior Policy Advisor to the State Treasurer in June 2019. In his off-time Matt enjoys sports, the outdoors, brewing beer and going on trips.
