

Governor's Proclamation

UNCLAIMED PROPERTY DAY

State of Wyoming
By the Governor

WHEREAS, the State of Wyoming has over $110 million in unclaimed property, including uncashed checks, insurance proceeds, and other financial assets that are considered lost or abandoned when an owner cannot be located after a specific period of time; and

WHEREAS, for over three decades, the State of Wyoming has received millions of dollars annually turned over by entities who cannot locate the owners and has made a commitment to reuniting these financial assets to their rightful owners; and

WHEREAS, currently, the State of Wyoming holds nearly a million accounts to be returned to Wyoming residents; and

WHEREAS, the State of Wyoming has returned over $70 million dollars to its rightful owners, including more than $10.6 million over the last year alone; and

WHEREAS, to find out if you have unclaimed property listed under your name, please visit the State's Unclaimed Property website at www.mycash.wyo.gov and file your claim using this free service; throughout the State of Wyoming. I urge citizens to utilize this free service and share this information with other residents and former residents who have ever lived in the State of Wyoming.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK GORDON, Governor of the State of Wyoming, do hereby proclaim February 1st, 2024, as

Unclaimed Property Day

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Executive Seal of the Governor of Wyoming to be affixed this 1st day of February, 2024.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Mark Gordon".

The Honorable Mark Gordon
33rd Governor of the Great State of Wyoming